

UCP OREGON'S 2023

Family Support CONFERENCE

November 3-4, 2023 | Wilsonville Holiday Inn

---

Registration is now open for UCP Oregon's Family Support Conference!

The Conference has been bringing our community together since 1995. The theme for this year's conference "REUNITED." It will be held November 3-4, 2023 in Wilsonville, Oregon.

The Conference is designed for:

- Families who are raising children with intellectual/developmental disabilities (I/DD) of any kind.
- Adults who experience I/DD.
- Medical, therapeutic, and educational professionals.

Worried about fees or childcare?

- Your County Caseworker or Personal Agent may be able to pay for your Conference registration. Ask them how!
- UCP is able to offer a limited number of scholarships--contact Katherine to request a scholarship.
- UCP is also able to offer a limited number of spots in our childcare room... you can request a spot when you register for the Conference.

MORE INFO

SCHEDULE:

- BOTH DAYS: Both days run from 9am-3:30pm. There are 30 minute breaks between workshops. You can use the break time to chat, or to visit the vendors, who provide information and resources. Many attendees say connecting with vendors is as important as the workshops!
- FRIDAY: Registration opens at 8am. Continental breakfast will be available. Our Keynote Speaker opens the Conference at 9am.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

LAUREN LOWERY

Our Keynote Speaker is Lauren Lowery. Lauren started her own journey as a special needs mom over 6 years ago when her son was diagnosed with Aicardi-Goutieres Syndrome.

Fast forward a few years, Lauren is now an ICF certified and trauma-informed life coach, here to help families of children experiencing disabilities and medical issues get out of survival mode and start living a life that is even better than they imagined.
